

To have the knee bent, hand over chest and fist lifted high was to acknowledge the one who gives you breath. Black Lives Matters is opening up gates to usher in the ancient idol rulers: "There is nothing new under the sun"!

A gate (or "gates") was not just a passageway through the defensive wall surrounding the city. It was typically a massive and often complex structure, consisting of an outer gate and an inner one providing a second line of defense, with a space in between.

The city gates were central to community action (Deut 21.18.21) where rulers met and council was given, and it was a city's protection against invaders. Gates also signifies power, dominion.

God promises Abraham that his posterity shall possess the gates of their enemies- their towns, their fortresses, Genesis 22:17.

What gates will you open?
Or will you ask Yeshua to make you a "Watchmen" over the gates to sound the alarm, give council, and give protection!
